Dear Pilgrims,

I am thrilled to offer this new and unique journey to southern France, following in the missionary path of Mary Magdalene. A long tradition holds that Mary Magdalene was exiled from Palestine a decade or so after the life of Jesus and reached sanctuary in Provence, where she evangelized the region, bringing it to faith in Jesus Christ. The crypt that holds her relics in the Basilica of Saint Mary Magdalene has been called the third most important tomb in Christianity.

I have planned this pilgrimage to coincide with the new Feast of St. Mary Magdalene, elevated from a memorial to a feast of the church by Pope Francis. Referring to her traditional title as “Apostle to the Apostles” the Pope acclaimed her as the first to witness Christ’s resurrection and as a “true and authentic evangelizer.” We will join the people of Saint Maximin-la-Sainte-Baume to celebrate the Feast of Mary Magdalene in the basilica and in street processions.

The decision to construct what is now the largest Gothic building in Provence was made by Charles II of Anjou in 1279 after her sarcophagus was discovered at the site. Saint-Maximin became one of the most important pilgrimage sites in Europe along with the cave of Sainte-Baume, where Mary Magdalene lived in prayer during the last thirty years of her life. A pilgrimage route naturally developed from Saint Maximin to the Sainte Baume mountains, a route walked by more than forty monarchs from Saint Louis to Louis XIV, and known as the “route of Kings.”

We will travel to these sites and many more of the most beautiful and sacred sites of Provence. Our itinerary focuses on the many places associated with Mary Magdalene and several other gospel figures who proclaimed the gospel here, including St. Lazarus and St. Martha.

I am pleased that we will be joined by Jennifer Ristine, a consecrated woman since 1997 with Regnum Christi. She was a professor at Mater Ecclesiae College and most recently served as Director of the Magdalena Institute and Visitors’ Center Coordinator in Magdala, Israel. She is the author of Mary Magdalene: Insights from Ancient Magdala, which I highly recommend for your reading. I am also happy that Fr. Louis Richard will join us to serve as chaplain, offering the Mass with us at the sacred site throughout our journey. He is the revered pastor of St. Mary Magdalene Church in Abbeville, Louisiana.

July is peak season and southern France is pricy, so the cost of our pilgrimage is a bit higher than some I offer. But it is the time when the region’s fields are bursting with color and fragrance, as perfumed violet lavender and dazzling sunflowers are in full bloom. Be assured that we will share an ideal combination of sightseeing, learning, quiet reflection, prayer, and certainly fun. We will return to only one hotel throughout all our days of travel – a comfortable converted monastery, right next door to the Basilica of St. Mary Magdalene. I have used Select International as my travel company for many years and find their service outstanding. I have never had any concerns about safety, accommodations, or amenities in all my years of leading tours.

In preparation for this pilgrimage or in your discernment, I would recommend a book by Fr. Sean Davidson, Saint Mary Magdalene: Prophetess of Eucharistic Love, to learn more about the traditions and spirituality of these places. If you would like to join us, I suggest sending your registration and deposit soon, as this will most probably fill quickly. I sure hope you can be part of this grace-filled pilgrimage.

In the Joy of the Gospel,
Stephen J. Binz

ITINERARY

✠ July 18, Monday, DAY 1: Depart USA ON AN OVERNIGHT FLIGHT TO MARSEILLE
Dinner provided on the flight as well as breakfast the next morning.

✠ July 19, Tuesday, DAY 2: MARSEILLE – SAINT MAXIMIN-LA-SAINTE-BAUME

We arrive at the Marseille airport and are welcomed by our English-speaking Select International guide. Time permitting, we will travel to Marseille, stopping at Notre-Dame-de-la-Garde, with a panoramic view of the Bay of Marseille and the Mediterranean beyond. After Mary Magdalene and her companions landed in France, she traveled with her brother Lazarus to Marseille, where he became its first bishop. We visit the Cathedral of Saint Mary Major, which enshrines the skull of St. Lazarus, the first bishop. We transfer to Saint Maximin-la-Sainte-Baume and settle into our hotel. The famous basilica enshrining the tomb of Mary Magdalene is nearby. We will close our day with Mass. Dinner at the hotel. (D.)

✠ July 20, Wednesday, DAY 3: SAINTE-MARIES-DE-LA-MER

We travel to the fishing village of Saintes-Maries-de-la-Mer, where the Rhône River meets the Mediterranean Sea. Here Mary Magdalene and her companions landed after being exiled from Palestine. Two of Mary Magdalene's companions on the boat were with her at Christ's empty tomb, Saint Mary Salome (the wife of Zebedee and mother of James and John) and Saint Mary Jacobe (the mother of the apostle James the Less). We will visit the old fortress church, Church of Notre-Dame-de-la-Mer, where the relics of these two Marys are enshrined and celebrate Mass there. In the village, we view the large Camargue Cross, representing faith, hope, and love, and honoring the guardians who watch over the white Camargue Horses that roam free in the marshland. After lunch, we take a relaxing boat ride up the Camargue to see the wild-life—Camargue horses and bulls who roam free, and a wide variety of beautiful birds, including the pink flamingo. After taking a little time for shopping, we return to our hotel for dinner in St Maximin-la-Sainte-Baume. (B. D.)

✠ July 21, Thursday, DAY 4: CANNES – ILE DE LERINS – SAINT-MAXIMIN

Following breakfast at the hotel, we drive to Cannes, city of the famous film festival on the Côte d'Azur. We take a boat ride to the Island of Saint Honorat to explore the Cistercian Abbey of Lérins. Founded in the 5th century by Saint Honorat, it became one of the greatest centers of western monasticism. Many of the bishops and saints of France spent time here, including Saint Patrick, before going to evangelize Ireland. We will meet with a brother of the community for Lectio Divina, celebrate Mass, and then enjoy wine tasting and lunch at a restaurant on the island. In the afternoon, we return to Cannes with time at leisure to explore the city before returning to Saint-Maximin-la-Sainte-Baume for dinner and an overnight. (B. L. D.)

✠ July 22, Friday, DAY 5: A SAINTE-BAUME & ST. MAXIMIN

On this Feast of Saint Mary Magdalene, after breakfast, we'll drive to the hôtellerie for the Feast Day Procession. The Dominicans will carry the tibia of Saint Mary Magdalene in the reliquary up to the Cave, where Mary Magdalene spent the last thirty years of her life. Here we will attend the 11:00 am Feast Day Mass. After Mass, we will climb the stairs to the Rock of Penitence, where Mary Magdalene prayed and was raised up by angels, and we'll leave our petitions before the statue of the saint. Afterward, we'll share a picnic lunch, which is included. After a time of prayer at the sanctuary, which has been guarded by the Dominicans since 1295, we transfer back to St Maximin-la-Sainte-Baume. There we will be joined by all the people in the town who come out for the festivities. The Association Santo Madaleno is a group of men and women whose purpose is to defend and uphold the traditions of Provence and the cult of Saint Mary Magdalene. The women dress in the traditional Provençal dress, and the men dress as guardians or local cowboys. The eight guardians carry the golden reliquary, the skull of Saint Mary Magdalene, through the streets of the town. We end the day with dinner and overnight at our hotel. (B. L. D.)

✠ July 23, Saturday, DAY 6: TARASCON – ARLES

After breakfast, we drive through the beautiful countryside of Provence to the extreme west of the Bouches-du-Rhône department to Tarascon, where we visit Collégiale Royale Sainte-Marthe, the collegiate church that houses the relics of Saint Martha, the sister of Mary and Lazarus. We will go down to the crypt, believed to be the house where she lived, where her remains were found in 1187. We'll see beautiful paintings with scenes of Martha's life, reflect on the gospel scenes, and celebrate Mass. Across the street from Château de Roi René (King René's Castle), we'll then see the statue of La Tarasque, the legendary dragon that hid in the river and terrorized the people. Saint Martha charmed the beast with hymns, prayers, and holy water, then brought the tamed Tarasque to the city. The people, terrified by the monster, attacked it, but the monster offered no resistance and died there. Martha then preached to the people and converted many of them to Christianity. Sorry for what they had done to the tamed monster, the newly Christianized townspeople changed the town's name to Tarascon. We will see some beautiful sunflower fields near Tarascon that inspired Vincent van Gogh to paint "Sunflowers" (1888). We drive south to Arles, where we will have lunch on our own at a lovely restaurant, Jardin Des Arts. Later we'll walk by a restaurant Vincent van Gogh painted when he lived in Arles from 1888-89, which he called "Café de la Nuit." The restaurant still exists in the condition it was then, but it is renamed Café Van Gogh. Then we will walk to the Church of St Trophime on the Place de la Republique. It was built between the 12th century and the 15th century and is in the Romanesque architectural tradition. The church was built upon the site of the 5th-century basilica of Arles named for St Stephen, the first Christian martyr. In 245 AD, Pope Fabian sent out seven bishops from Rome to Gaul to preach the gospel: Gaius to Tours, Trophimus to Arles, Paul to Narbonne, Saturninus to Toulouse, Denis to Paris, Austromoine to Clermont, and Martial to Limoges. We will see many relics in the Church of St Trophime. Then we'll drive back to St Maximin for dinner in a local restaurant. (B. D.)

✚ July 24, Sunday, DAY 7: APT – SAINT-MAXIMIN-LA-SAINTE-BAUME

After breakfast at the hotel, we celebrate Sunday Mass at the Basilica of St. Mary Magdalene. We then drive to Apt. The Cathédrale Sainte-Anne in Apt houses the remains of Saint Anne, the Mother of the Virgin Mary. The ancient tradition holds that the relics of Saint Anne were brought to Gaul by the same vessel which carried Lazarus, Martha, and Mary Magdalene. They carried Sainte Anne's precious remains for safekeeping to the city of Apt Julia, which today is the city of Apt. In those stormy days of persecution, it was necessary to hide the relics of the martyrs and saints to preserve them from destruction. The remains of Saint Anne were hidden underground. Then St. Auspicious, the first bishop of Apt Julia, who died in 118, took further precautions to guard this holy treasure and buried her relics in a subterranean chapel. We will learn how the relics were miraculously discovered in 792 by Charlemagne with the help of a deaf and dumb boy. Today, the beautiful crypt is below the main altar in the cathedral. Returning to Saint-Maximin-la-Sainte-Baume, we will have an encounter with Fr. Florian Racine, rector of the basilica, or one of the Missionaries of the Most Holy Eucharist. We celebrate vespers in the basilica at 4:00 pm followed by a procession in the street. Dinner and overnight in Saint-Maximin-la-Sainte-Baume. (B. D.)

✚ July 25, Monday, DAY 8: SAINT-MAXIMIN – GORDES – AVIGNON

After breakfast, we travel to the Abbey of Sénanque, located in the heart of Provence, in a natural setting of lavender and extraordinary beauty. One of the purest examples of early Cistercian architecture, the abbey is still in use by the community of Cistercian monks. We will tour the abbey church, the cloister, the heating room, the chapter room, and celebrate Mass. The Cistercians organize their day around three pillars: the divine office, lectio divina, and manual labor. The monks of Sénanque make honey, essential oils, jams, beauty products, and numerous products derived from lavender are sold at the abbey's store. After lunch on our own in the wonderful village of Gordes, we travel to Avignon for a visit to the famous Papal Palace, listed by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site. Avignon became the seat of the papacy between 1309 and 1423 when the popes returned to Rome. Begun in 1335, the palace is the largest Gothic construction of the middle ages. Two popes were responsible for directing the construction of this Christian fortress, with its ramparts, keep moats, and magnificent chapel. Six conclaves were held here, ending in the elections of Benedict XII, Clement VI, Innocent VI, Urban V, Gregory XI, and Benedict XIII. We then transfer back to Saint-Maximin-la-Sainte-Baume for dinner and overnight. (B. D.)

✚ July 26, Tuesday, DAY 9: AIX-EN-PROVENCE

After breakfast at our hotel, we drive to Aix-en-Provence and visit the Cathédrale Saint Sauveur, where Mary Magdalene and Saint Maximin (the first bishop of Aix) first dedicated a chapel to the Holy Savior. Remains of the floor of this chapel are inside the cathedral. The church houses relics and important paintings, including The Burning Bush by Nicholas Froment, a masterpiece of the 15th century. We will also see the 6th-century baptistery and cloister, then celebrate Mass. We will walk through this lovely town, passing by the many fountains and outdoor markets, where we will shop for specialty items from the area. You might choose to have lunch at Les Deux Garçons. Some of the many famous people who have dined here include Winston Churchill, Pablo Picasso, Edith Piaf, and Paul Cézanne. We'll then walk to the Chapel of the Oblates, where Saint Eugène de Mazenod founded the Missionaries of Provence (1826), which was later called the Congregation of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate. Described as having "a heart as big as the world," he later became the Bishop of Marseille. After strolling around Aix-en-Provence, we'll return to St Maximin-la-Sainte-Baume for a farewell dinner in a local restaurant and overnight. (B. Special dinner)

Important information regarding your trip:

Group Air:

Select International Tours is a tour company that specializes in group travel. A group is ten or more people traveling together. For each group we negotiate and secure group air contracts with all major airlines departing from the designated airport. This enables us to keep all passengers within a group traveling together, in most cases utilizing best air rates.

Group air contracts differ from individually purchased airline tickets in many ways. When group air contracts are negotiated, we deposit a certain number of seats to hold the space and GTD the rate. Unused seats must be released at least 90 days prior to departure to avoid a $ 100.00 per unused seat penalty.

It is important to receive your registration by the deadline stated on the flyer. Once the seats are released back to the airlines, we may be able to accommodate passengers at a different air rate or on a different airline.

Group air contracts limit types of deviations allowed and in some cases issuing tickets at individual rates may be necessary. Individual rates & reservations are not GTD until the tickets are issued. In order to issue an individual ticket we must receive full payment. Taxes and fuel costs are subject to change until the tickets are issued.

Domestic add-on tickets:

We can assist you with domestic air to connect with our international group air if you wish. Indicate on the registration form which airport you wish us to research air from. We are not responsible for fees or charges incurred in case dates change or the trip is cancelled. However, when buying a domestic add-on ticket through Select we may be able to assist in case of changes.

We will provide you with best schedule to connect with the flight (we are not able to help you with tickets that do not connect directly to the international flight) and the best price we can offer. Our information will be sent to you by e-mail. We require an acceptance within 24 hours of our offer along with full payment otherwise the rate is subject to change based on availability. We cannot quote any domestic air requests more than twice.

Business Class and Economy Plus Seats:

We are happy to assist you with business class and economy plus seats. Passengers must be registered on one of our trips to receive a quote. We will quote the available rate which is subject to change until we receive payment to purchase the seats. Usually Economy Plus Seats require the group tickets to be issued before the ability to upgrade.

Passport and Visa information:

All airlines require us to submit valid passport information including full name (first, middle and last), date of birth, gender, country, in which your passport has been issued and passport expiration date. To ensure that we can provide this information accurately, we require a photo copy of each person's passport traveling on each tour. Your passport must be valid 6 months from the trip return date. It is the passenger's responsibility to check if visas are required for the destinations visited and to obtain any necessary travel documents. Select International Tours does not provide information or assistance about passports or visa requirements.

Frequent Flyer Numbers:

Select International cannot assist if you wish to reserve air using FF miles. We can update your record with Frequent Flyer #'s only if you note the number on the registration form. Otherwise please call the airline directly.

Seat Requests & Seat Changes

Select International Tours DOES NOT provide assistance with passenger's seating preferences or specific seat requests. Due to the large number of passengers we work with, we are unable to provide this service unless the request is due to a medical issue. In this case, we will request a seat with the airline but cannot guarantee that the seat will be confirmed. Please understand that although requests are being made directly with the airline, not every request is guaranteed or granted by the airline. If you would like to have a seat number assigned, it is best to contact the airline directly upon receipt of your ticket confirmation # or change your seats at the time of check-in at the airport prior to departure.

“Land Only” (not purchasing group air with Select International Tour Package:

We understand that some passengers may wish to purchase their own air transportation. Arranging transportation on your own may give you the ability to use flight miles for your ticket, secure the seat you desire/require, or deviate from the group. We offer land only prices on all our tours.

Airport transfers are not provided for passengers purchasing land only (not purchasing air with us) if arriving or departing at any time different from the group. If you wish to enjoy the benefit of the group transfer, please be sure you are at the airport at the same time as the group. On certain itineraries airport transfers, may be very costly as the group may be traveling a far distance from the airport on the first or last day.

If the flight schedule you purchase arrives or departs at a time different from the group, it is your responsibility to join the group either at the airport or at the first hotel.

If you register for the air and land package and convert to land only, a $ 100.00 service charge will be assessed should the change be made within 90 days of departure.

Flight cancellations or delays:

In case your flight is cancelled or delayed please work with the airline directly at the airport to be rebooked on the first available flight out. Once you know your new flight and time of arrival contact the emergency number provided in your travel documents to notify your guide of the delay. Your travel documents will contain an emergency number and the guide's phone. Any incurred costs are out of pocket and not included in the trip cost. The cost of private transfers in case of delays are not covered as part of your trip cost. You may file a claim with your Travel Protection Insurance company or with the airlines upon your return. Receipts will be required.

Single rooms:

A limited number of single rooms are available on each trip. If you wish to share a room let us know at the time of registration. We will attempt to connect you with another person looking to share. The cost of Travel Protection insurance will be adjusted to reflect the single supplement as insurance cost depends on total trip cost. Should we not be able to accommodate all single room requests and you are not able or willing to share, a complete refund will be provided.

If your roommate cancels, and the room is converted into single usage, a single supplement will be charged.

How much walking will there be on this trip?

This active program covers a good amount of ground each day. The days are busy, usually starting with a wake-up call around 7AM and departure by 9AM or earlier. We aim to be back at the hotel between 5PM and 6PM. Times may vary depending on destination and program.

Expect from three to four hours walking on some touring days. The pace is moderate, however you will encounter some uneven surfaces, stairs, steps, cobblestones, and significant slopes. Some tours require walking in the open air with no shade and no seating available.
